LORENZO FERRERO & THE COLLECTIVE

About Lorenzo Ferrero

Lorenzo Ferrero is a Latin Grammy-winning saxophonist, composer, and arranger celebrated for his powerful improvisation and unique fusion of modern jazz with Afro-Latin and Peruvian influences. As both a performer and educator, he has become a leading voice in today's global saxophone and jazz community, reaching over 90,000 followers through his music, educational content, and collaborations.

About Lorenzo Ferrero & The Collective

Formed in 2022, Lorenzo Ferrero & The Collective is a genre-defying ensemble that blends original jazz with Afro-Peruvian rhythms, deep funk, and modern Latin jazz. Known for their electrifying energy and rich musical storytelling, the group adapts seamlessly from intimate duo settings to full-stage sextet performances.

They've appeared at major venues and festivals such as the Libretto Jazz Club, The Grape Ventura, JEN Conference 2024, and the 2025 NAMM Show, consistently captivating audiences with their bold sound and heartfelt delivery. Whether on a festival stage or a prestigious jazz club, The Collective delivers performances that are both technically masterful and emotionally moving—perfect for international tours, high-profile bookings, and groundbreaking collaborations.

He was also featured on Alex Acuña's album Gifts, which Le Coq Records described as:

"Joined by Peruvian tenor sax powerhouse Lorenzo Ferrero, this gifted and versatile crew runs the stylistic gamut from funk to fusion, soul-jazz, ambient, Latin and Brazilian-flavored jazz."
